The 23rd edition of Asian Art in London takes place from 22nd October – 7th November 2020.

This year, for the first time, the event is divided into two parts:

From 22nd – 31st October the focus is on Indian and Islamic Art.

From 29th October – 7th November the focus is on East Asian Art.

Some exhibitors will be open for both events, so we advise visitors to consult both sections of this guide and the maps and, for the very latest updates, please visit:

Covid-19

The contents of this guide are believed to be correct at the time of printing, but Covid-19 creates uncertainty for everyone and Asian Art in London wishes all visitors to remain safe.

Galleries and Auction houses will each have their own requirements for social distancing and all will have hand sanitizers available.

Normally there are Late Night Receptions at all the Galleries and Auction houses, but this year some galleries have chosen not to be open late and, sadly, refreshments will not be offered.

Nevertheless, we hope that visitors will enjoy Asian Art in London as usual, but we encourage visitors to check websites or telephone galleries to make sure they are open outside normal hours. Depending on circumstances it may be necessary to make a timed appointment to visit.

The guidebook provides all the information as to websites, telephone numbers and the whereabouts of each gallery. This is also repeated on the Asian Art in London website: www.asianartinlondon.com

We wish all our visitors an enjoyable event.

Open Evenings

Participating Galleries and Auction Houses are delighted to invite you to Late Evening Viewings.

At the time of writing, the following Participants will open late, but please check the Asian Art in London website for the latest information and please note that opening times will vary.

Bonhams are international auctioneers of Islamic and Indian art. Offering a wide range of objects, which represent the diverse and rich cultural heritage of the Islamic world, our auctions include manuscripts and works on paper, ceramics, metalwork, textiles and arms and armour from the 7th century to the 20th century. We also feature works from India's finest artistic traditions; from Rajput and Mughal miniature paintings to Buddhist, Jain and Hindu sculpture, art from the Sikh kingdoms as well as jewellery and jade from India's royal courts.
