Spotlight will be published bi-monthly and the current issue will include 52 works available from 26 dealers taking part in Asian Art in London (AAL). The price of each item will be listed and can be purchased directly from the dealer.

The first edition was sent to AAL's mailing list and to the participating dealers' clientele last week (June 8).

This year's festival, which follows the two-section format introduced in 2020, runs from October 21-30 for Indian & Islamic art, with East Asian art on October 28-November 6.

As well as dealers, auction houses also take part. New to the event this year is Frome saleroom Dore & Rees, now owned by Asian art specialist Lee Young (formerly of Lyon & Turnbull and Duke's).

To receive Spotlight, sign up to the mailing list on AAL's website asianartinlondon.com/contact-us/.
