Please note: Admission by pre-booked ticket only. Tickets are non-refundable and strictly non-transferable.

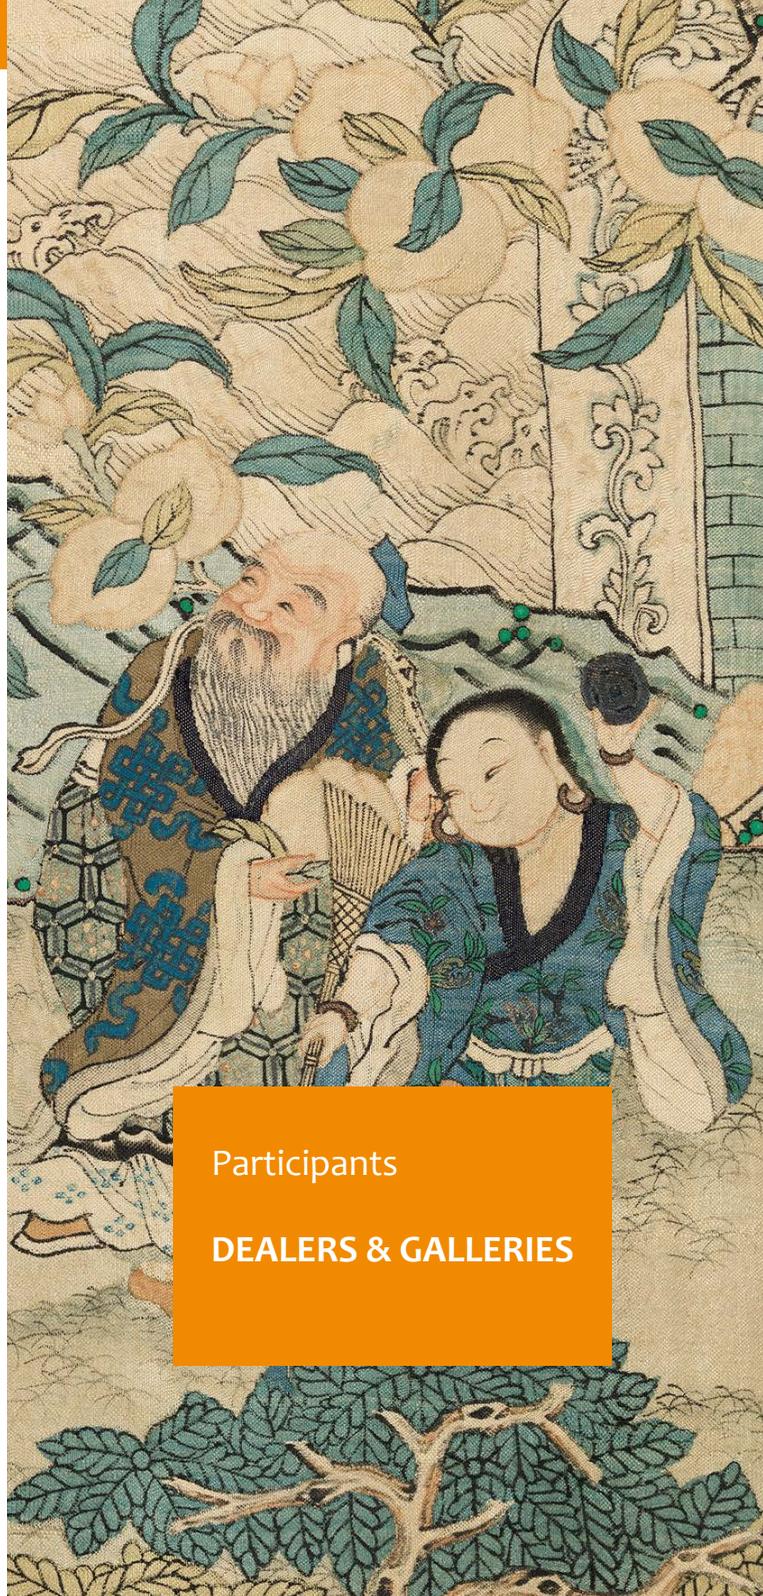

The Symposium is co-hosted by the SOAS-Alphawood Postgraduate Diploma in Asian Art and Asian Art in London.

This Symposium brings together curators, scholars, artists and art market specialists to explore diverse perspectives on a variety of media and materials across Asia; specifically: ceramics, textiles and metalwork. Panellists will speak about a range of artworks and objects which can be seen in London during Asian Art in London.

The event will open with a keynote lecture from Professor Stacey Pierson of SOAS University of London, and close with a keynote lecture from Rachel Dedman, Jameel Curator of Contemporary Art from the Middle East at the Victoria & Albert Museum.

Reverse appeal reflects export mirror's condition

This 18th century Chinese export reverse-painted mirror painting in a period gilt frame sold for £37,000 (plus 24% buyer's premium) at Hampshire firm Lynton Auctions on March 30-31. Measuring 21 1/2 x 30 1/2 x 3/8cm, it was in exceptional condition with only minor imperfections.

It came for sale from a family home in Lynton where it had hung for over 80 years. Several phone bidders competed for it well past the £10,000-15,000 estimate, with one winning out. Lynton Auctions, owned by vintage by specialist Nick Power and his son James Power, is based in the building where George Kidder had an auction.

Tributes paid to prolific author Judith Miller

Antiques expert, author and Antiques Roadshow stalwart Judith Miller has died after a short illness.

Born in Galashiels in the Scottish borders in 1951, she wrote more than 300 books on the subject of antiques and co-founded the Miller's Antiques Price Guide with her first husband Martin Miller, in 1979. She had recently been working on the forthcoming edition.
